

TWO KEYNOTE EXPERIENCES

WHO YOU ARE. HOW YOU SHOW UP. WHAT YOU DO WHILE YOU'RE THERE. IT MATTERS.

Keynotes about the choices we make, the people we become, and the impact we have on others.

THE PERSONAL LENS

DARE TO MATTER

Do I matter?

For audiences navigating change, uncertainty, setbacks, or a new chapter.

THE PERSONAL LENS

DARE TO MATTER

Do I matter?

Surviving a stroke at 35 forced Pete to confront his choices, his identity, and what came next. That experience opens a personal, funny, practical keynote about the choices still available to us - even when life doesn't follow the plan.

WHAT YOUR AUDIENCE TAKES AWAY

- 01 Recognize the choices still available when circumstances aren't yours to choose.
- 02 Separate who you are from your title, role, or circumstances.
- 03 Respond more intentionally to fear, setbacks, uncertainty, and change.

THE OUTWARD LENS

BETTER BECAUSE YOU WERE THERE

You change the room. The only question is how.

People and places should be better because you were there. Through four connected disciplines, Pete challenges audiences to become more intentional about what they bring to the people, conversations, teams, and places they influence every day.

THE FRAMEWORK

A framework for everyday impact.

HUMILITY / GRATITUDE / OPTIMISM / BETTER

WHAT YOUR AUDIENCE TAKES AWAY

- 01 Recognize where you can be most useful, and how your choices affect others.
- 02 Make other people's contributions seen and valued.
- 03 Turn good intentions into specific actions that improve a team, conversation, or situation.
